Report of Study Tour - Visit to APMC

Smt. Nankibai Wadhvani Arts College Yavatmal, Department of Economics was organized the study tour at Agricultural Produce Market Committee Yavatmal on 01 December 2022.

When the crop came into the hands of the farmers, the crop lenders would not pay the farmer even after buying it at a bargain price. To overcome this situation, the concept of Agricultural Produce Market Committee was proposed. According to this, the farmer can sell his crop only and only by bringing it to the market committee. Thus, the oppressive behavior of moneylenders was stopped.

With the passage of time, the activities related to marketing of agricultural produce increased. The number of organizations in various categories such as buying and selling associations, consumer organizations, fruit and vegetable organizations, processing organizations, etc. has also increased. From the point of view that the students should get information and get to know how its actual business works, the Department of Economics in the college, a study tour was organized at Agricultural Produce Market Committee Yavatmal on 01 December 2022.

Hon. Vijay Yende (Secretary, Agricultural Produce Market Committee) gave complete information to the students about how the Agricultural Produce Market Committee is managed and operated. Students also answered many questions raised by them.
