Report of Study Tour

Date - 30th December 2024

On 30th December 2024, the Sociology Department of Smt. Nankibai Wadhvani Kala Mahavidyalaya, Yavatmal, organized an enriching study tour to the tribal village of Kolampod, located in the Moha region. This educational tour aimed to provide students with first-hand experience and understanding of tribal life, their culture, and socio-economic conditions.

The tour was led by Dr. Vishakha Dere, Head of the Sociology Department, under the guidance of our esteemed Principal, Dr. Jayant Chatur, whose inspiration and support made this tour possible. The following students participated in the tour: Rajani Chauhan, Sakshi Chaudhary, Manashree Sheram, Gaurav Gajare, Adity Kurmelwar, Jay Shendre, Ravi Pache, Nikita Padal, Nilesh Chaudhari, Nageswari Yerake, Arati Raut, Sakshi Shirbhate, Vedanshi Bodade, Rutuja Pithekar, Sanika Tambe, Yogita Sapkal Sanika Mirzapure, Unnati Marskolhe,

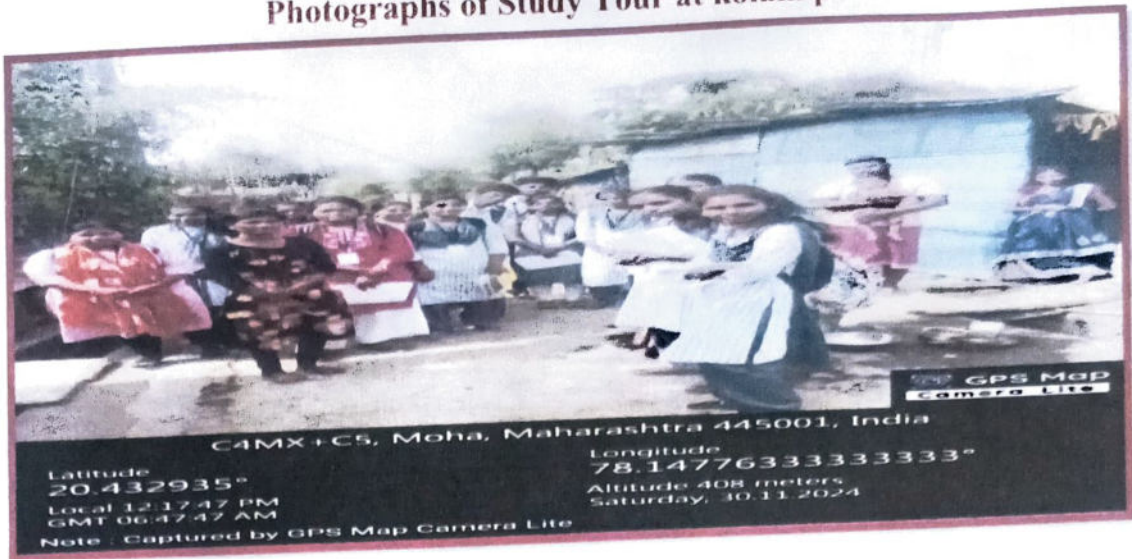

The group interacted with the local villagers, learning about their way of life, traditions, challenges, and aspirations. Among the villagers we had the privilege of meeting were Anjana Devankar, Manjula Dahate, Vithoba Gedam, Vandana Kasarkar, Maya Yerane, Leela Dandekar, Bhimrao Aatram, Parmuji Borkar, and Mainabai Jamburkar, who generously shared their experiences and insights.

This study tour was an invaluable experience, deepening students' understanding of tribal communities and their socio-cultural environment. It not only broadened the academic horizons of the participants but also encouraged them to develop empathy towards marginalized communities and engage in meaningful socio-cultural research.
