Report of Guest Lecture on “Raga & Raag Samay”

Date 04/09/2025

The Department of Music organized a guest lecture on the topic “Raga & Raag Samay” on 4th September 2025. The lecture was delivered by the eminent music personality Prof.Dr. Jwala Nagle.

The program was conducted with the objective of enhancing students’ understanding of the concept of raga and its relation to time (Raag Samay) in Indian classical music. The session began with the introduction of the guest speaker and a warm welcome by the faculty members.

Dr. Jwala Nagle elaborated on the fundamental aspects of raga, including its structure, characteristics, and emotional expression. She also explained the significance of Raag Samay, highlighting how different ragas are associated with specific times of the day and how this influences their mood and presentation. The lecture was enriched with practical demonstrations, which helped the students grasp the concepts more effectively.

Students actively participated in the session by asking questions and interacting with the guest speaker. The lecture proved to be highly informative and beneficial, deepening their knowledge of Indian classical music.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Jwala Nagle for her valuable guidance and insightful lecture. The session was indeed inspiring and academically enriching for all attendees.
